

Key Features

- The 2024–25 Budget measures will deliver cost-of-living relief, make our communities safer, invest in educating for the future and in Queenslanders' health and wellbeing.
- This Budget provides a record $11.218 billion in concessions in 2024–25, an increase of 31.1 per cent.
- Substantial cost-of-living relief is delivered in this Budget including a $1,300 electricity bill rebate in 2024–25 for all Queensland households across the state.
- The government is providing an uplift to Queensland Health's operating funding envelope of $4.393 billion to address emerging demand and cost pressures, improve the flow of patients through hospitals and provide more timely access to care as well as boosting First Nations health and women's health care.
- This uplift means a record operating health budget of $26.710 billion, a 10.6 per cent boost to the health system.
- The Budget is investing in young Queenslanders and the state's future workforce through education and training, and prevention and early support initiatives. This includes total funding of $22.801 billion for education and training in 2024–25. The $502 million Putting Queensland Kids First early support package aims to deliver stronger outcomes with positive life trajectories for Queensland children and families.
- The government's evidence-based Community Safety Plan for Queensland commits an extra $1.28 billion over 5 years for community safety measures across 5 key pillars: supporting victims; delivering for our frontline; detaining offenders; intervening when people offend; and preventing crime before it occurs.
- The government has committed $3.1 billion towards the new whole-of-system housing plan, Homes for Queenslanders. The plan responds to key housing pressures, including supply, affordability, and homelessness, and enhances the focus on planning and development outcomes. Homes for Queenslanders represents a significant uplift on top of the existing major investment into social and affordable housing, setting a target of 53,500 new social homes by 2046.
- This budget sets out a landmark capital investment of around $26 billion over 4 years to deliver the Queensland Energy and Jobs Plan, which sets out the pathway to transform Queensland's energy system and achieve the State's renewable energy and emissions reduction targets.
